

A vibrant summer-themed banner for speech teletherapy. The background is a light blue sky with white clouds and colorful triangular bunting flags. A large pink circular graphic with a scalloped edge contains the text 'SUMMER SPEECH TELETHERAPY'. Below the circle, two children are depicted: a girl with dark skin wearing a yellow sun hat and a purple top, and a girl with light skin wearing a blue polka-dot swimsuit. They are both smiling and have their arms raised. The bottom of the banner features a teal background with several colorful flowers.
